Contd..2

2. The Director General, Special Protection Force, has further informed that the services of the above personnel are not regularized so far in the categories to which they were promoted, because of the reason that they did not undergo the required three months conversion course. They have still been working in the promotion cadre as SIs / ASIs on out of seniority basis only. They have been discharging their duties satisfactorily without any complaints and all have been maintaining a good record. They have submitted written representations for regularizing their services and also declaring their probation in the present category.

3. The Director General, Special Protection Force, has further informed that Special Protection Force has no separate training institution and infrastructure facilities for conducting conversion courses, refresher courses etc. for its personnel. Owing to large number of vacancies and due to non-availability of training centre and the administrative requirements the above courses could not be conducted.

4. In the reference 3rd read above, the Director General, Special Protection Force, has further informed that the rules stipulated in G.O.Ms.No.289, Home (Police.H) Department, dated 25.09.1999, read with G.O.Ms.No.10 Home (Police) Department, dated 12.01.2000, for Promotional Course Test shall strictly be ensured in future course of promotions of Special protection Force Personnel.

5. The Director General, Special Protection Force, has therefore requested to issue appropriate orders relaxing the Rule 11 of the A.P. Special Protection Force Rules in exercise of the powers conferred on them under Rule 31 of the AP State and Subordinate Services Rules, 1996 as one time measure so that the services of the above personnel can be regularized from the date of their temporary promotion duly declaring them to have completed their period of probation satisfactory from the date of completion of one year period, in respect of 38 SIs and 44 ASIs.

6. In the reference 4th read above, the Director General, Special Protection Force, has sent similar proposal stating that during the period from 2000 to 2008, 369 Constables of SPF who had completed the minimum required service of three years in their substantive rank were promoted as Head Constables purely on temporary basis. Their services have not been regularized so far in the Head Constable rank since they did not undergo the required three months conversion course. In order to ensure that all the existing vacancies and those that arise from now onwards are filled strictly in accordance with the rules, the service of these 369 candidates who have been working as Head Constables on temporary basis need to be regularized by relaxation of Rule 11 of the Special Rules. He has therefore requested for relaxation of Rule 11 of the A.P. S.P.F. Special Rules in respect of 369 Head Constables for regularization of their service from the date of their promotion as Head Constables on temporary basis and to declare their probation under Rule 18 (b) (ii) of A.P. State and Subordinate Service Rules, 1996.

7. After careful examination of the entire matter, Government hereby relax the Rule 11 of Special Rules for A.P.Special Protection Force Subordinate Service as a one time measure in respect of 38 Sub-Inspectors, 44 Assistant Sub-Inspectors and 369 Head Constables of Special Protection Force, for regularisation of their services from the date of their promotion on temporary basis, and also for declaration of probation.

8. The Director General, Special Protection Force, is requested to take further necessary action accordingly.
